

JAL to Start Charter Flights between Tokyo (Haneda) and Italy

TOKYO April 25, 2014: JAL Group (JAL) today announced to start charter flights departing from Tokyo (Haneda) to Rome and Milan from July 2, 2014.

With the expansion of international flight slots at Haneda airport, JAL decided to operate non-stop charter flights from Haneda to two popular cities (Rome and Milan) in Europe this summer.

Individual fares will be available for those charter flights including normal fare, discounted fares and special purchase tickets in addition to various tour packages provided by some travel agencies. Sales and reservations for these charter flights will be started from May 1, 2014.

JAL is striving to deliver more convenient and comfortable experience to customers. The airline will meet challenges to further develop its network, and provide customers with innovative products and high-quality services.
