JAL to Serve Halal Certified Meals on Select International Flights

~Muslim meals with Halal Certification to be served on flights departing from Japan~

Tokyo May 30, 2016: Japan Airlines (JAL) will provide Halal certified Muslim meals on all outbound international flights from Japan, starting June 1, 2016.

JAL has been serving Muslim meal as a special meal for Muslim customers. Recently the airline has received Halal Certification (*1) from Japan Islamic Trust (JIT) (*2), for the whole processing of its Muslim meal menus (*3) aboard all international flights departing from Japan.

Additionally JAL has changed all dishware used for Muslim meals to disposable one with Halal Certification in order to deliver a sense of security to Muslim customers when they enjoy our in-flight meals.

JAL will be striving to serve customers with delicious meals which are only available aboard JAL flights and provide customers with a pleasant and comfortable travel experience.

Applicable class: All classes

Applicable route: All international flights departing from Japan

How to apply: By email or phone at least 24 hours before the schedule departure time

Halal certified Muslim meals:

Business Class

Economy Class

<Halal meals on international flights to Japan>

● All flights from Kuala Lumpur
Japanese and Western Menus for Muslim and normal meals have received Halal Certification from the Department of Islamic Development Malaysia.

● All flights from Jakarta
Western Menus for Muslim and normal meals have received Halal Certification from The Indonesian Council of Ulama Jakarta.

<More>
<Flights with Halal-certified meal service (*4)> (○: available; ×: not available)

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Flights</th>
<th>Muslim meals</th>
<th>Normal meals (Western menu)</th>
<th>Normal meals (Japanese menu)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>From Japan</td>
<td>○</td>
<td>×</td>
<td>×</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>From Kuala Lumpur</td>
<td>○</td>
<td>○</td>
<td>○</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>From Jakarta</td>
<td>○</td>
<td>○</td>
<td>×</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Note:
(*1) Halal Certification is recognition that the meals for Muslims are made and approved according to Islamic laws and rules.
(*2) JIT is a religious corporation registered in Japanese Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology. JIT has begun issuing halal certificates since 1999. It was approved as a certifying entity in Japan by halal certifying entities in the United Arab Emirates, Qatar, and Thailand. URL: www.islam.or.jp/en/
(*3) Halal Certification of the whole production process includes ingredients, production method, production factory and dishware etc.
(*4) Meals on flights other than the above are not halal certified.

END