

Compliance Investigations Committee Provides Contact Information

- Persons with relevant information are requested to contact the Committee -

Tokyo, March 10, 2010: Japan Airlines (JAL) announced last month, the establishment of the Compliance Investigations Committee (the “Committee”) on March 2, 2010. As part of the company’s efforts in executing a fair and transparent restructuring, JAL has tasked the Committee to examine past business practices of the JAL Group.

With the purpose of obtaining more information about compliance issues in the company’s history, the Committee is asking anyone with relevant information to contact them by post, or by sending an email to a dedicated email address (please see below) by no later than April 15, 2010.

Mailing address : Law office of Nishikohri & Miyama
Compliance Investigations Committee
Chiyoda-ku, Hirakawacho 1- 9 – 3
Kyosho Building 2nd Floor
Tokyo 102-0093, Japan

Email address : jal-chousa@abox3.so-net.ne.jp

Closing date : April 15, 2010 (Thursday)

About the Committee

An independent investigative organization, the Committee is comprised of third-party members who can impartially provide professional opinion and effectively assess the JAL Group. Activities of the Committee and key findings in the course of their investigations will be disclosed and reported to the appointed Trustees of JAL, under the Corporate Reorganization Proceedings.

Members of the Compliance Investigations Committee

Position in Committee	Name	Background
Chairman	Chiharu SAIGUCHI	Lawyer, former member of the Supreme Court of Japan
Vice chairman	Tatsuo KAINAKA	Former Superintending Prosecutor of the Tokyo High Public Prosecutors' Office, former member of the Supreme Court of Japan
Member	Shinsuke KUBO	Certified public accountant
Member	Masaya Miyama	Lawyer
Member	Kyoko UEMURA	Lawyer, former judge

END

Journalists with media enquiries, please contact the press office: sze_hunn.yap@jal.com / Tel: +81-3-5460-3109/www.jal.com/en/corporate/