Japan Airlines Updates International Network Plans in August-September,2022

In response to the changes in the environment caused by the COVID-19 infection, we have decided Delhi route flight plans in August 2022, and the Kona route flight plans in September, as well as additional flights on the North American, European, and Southeast Asian routes in August and September, as previously announced. In order to respond to strong demand for connecting flights and other factors, we will continue to flexibly consider necessary increases in the number of flights. JAL will continue to provide safe and secure travel experience.

Key Highlights :

- ✓ In August, we will operate a total of four flights a week to Delhi from Haneda and Narita, continuing from July.
- ✓ Kona route in September will be operated three flights a week, continuing from August.
- ✓ Additional flights will be operated on the Narita to/from-Los Angeles and Frankfurt routes and the Narita-Chicago-Bangkok route starting in August.
