

Joint Release

JAL to Celebrate Valentine`s Day on February 14

Passengers to Receive a JAL Original - LOTTE Ghana MILK CHOCOLATE

Tokyo, February 7, 2019 – Japan Airlines Co., Ltd. (hereinafter JAL) and LOTTE Co., Ltd. (hereinafter LOTTE) have announced a collaborated effort to hand out an originally designed LOTTE Ghana MILK CHOCOLATE on Valentine`s Day for passengers on JAL operated flights. Last year, JAL and LOTTE handed out the popular bite-size chocolate to passengers on all domestic flights. As the carrier received favorable reviews, the service will now be expanded to international flights departing from Japan.

As a token of appreciation and to celebrate Valentine`s Day, JAL and LOTTE would like to present the exclusive chocolate to passengers traveling on the 14th of February.

JAL Original - LOTTE Ghana MILK CHOCOLATE

Bite-size Ghana milk chocolates are a favorite across all age groups in Japan.

- Applicable Flights – JAL Group operated domestic flights (excluding Japan Transocean Air / Ryukyu Air Commuter operated flights) and on international flights departing from Japan
- Service Date – February 14, 2019 (Thursday)
- Service Method – Cabin crew will hand out the chocolate to passengers during the flight

For select Japan domestic flights, the chocolate will be handed out at the boarding gate

Due to operational reasons, please be advised that this service may not be available on select flights

###