Japan Airlines Launches New International Network Plan

Haneda=Dalian Daily Service will be Launched on July 19

Japan Airlines (JAL) announced today that the Haneda=Dalian route, which was initially delayed due to the COVID-19 pandemic, will finally be launched on July 19. This launch coincides with the improved throughput capacity at Haneda Airport Terminal 3, resulting from the expansion of arrival and departure slots that took place in March 2020. This new route will provide travelers with enhanced connectivity between Haneda and Dalian, fostering stronger ties and facilitating seamless travel experiences for our passengers.
