Japan Airlines to Offer Discounted Fares and Flights to Support and Revitalize Regions Affected by Typhoon Jebi

Tokyo, September 24, 2018 – During the aftermath of Typhoon Jebi, Japan Airlines (JAL) operated additional flights out of Narita International airport, while servicing select flights on Japan domestic routes providing transportation options to the public. Due to the full recovery of Kansai International airport, the company has resumed full operations on September 21, 2018.

In order to continue supporting the regions near Kansai, JAL Group announced the decision to offer discounted fares and operate additional flights for a limited time.

1. Discounted Fares for International Flights

For flights arriving into Kansai International airport, discounted fares will be offered for customers based overseas.

Applicable Routes: From flights from Shanghai, Taipei, Bangkok, Los Angeles to Kansai Airport

Purchase Period: Upon approval of fare through October 31, 2018

Departure Period: October 1 ~ December 15, 2018

Discount Rate: Up to 30 percent off (Based on approval of fare. Discounted rate may differ on each route)

2. Limited Time Discounted Fares for Japan Explorer Pass (Japan Domestic Routes)

Discounted Japan Explorer Pass fares will apply for routes to/from airports based in Osaka (Itami and Kansai airport), as well as Nanki-Shirahama airport. The company will offer these discounted fares for overseas visitors to support and revitalize these local regions.

Applicable Routes: Flights traveling to/from Osaka Airport (Itami and Kansai) and Nanki Shirahama Airport

Purchase Period: September 28 ~ December 12, 2018 (fares are available up to 72 hours before departure)

Travel Period: October 1 ~ December 15, 2018

Discount Rate: Up to 30% off (Based on approval of fare. Discounted rate may differ on each route)
