Japan Airlines Updates International Network Plans in July-September,2022

In response to the changes in the environment caused by the COVID-19 infection, JAL has decided on a flight plan for the Paris-Guam route in July 2022, and for the Paris, Melbourne, Guam route in August and September.

This will be the first time in two years and three months that JAL's Kona, Guam route will be operated since the decision was made to suspend the service due to the COVID-19 infection.

To enable passengers to enjoy their first resort trip in a long time, we are offering limited time fares and tour products.

JAL will continue to provide safe and secure travel experience.

Key Highlights :

- ✓ In July, flights on the Haneda=Paris route will be increased to daily operation, and in September, flights on the Melbourne route will be increased to three round-trips per week.
- ✓ On the Hawaii route, we will increase flights on the Haneda and Kansai=Honolulu route in August, and also operate the Chubu=Honolulu and Narita=Kona routes.
- ✓ For Guam, we will operate the Narita=Guam route from August to September.
