

March 31, 2025

JAL's Inflight Entertainment Gets Even Better With Paramount+

Passengers to Enjoy Popular Shows from Paramount+ Onboard

Tokyo, JAPAN – Japan Airlines (JAL) is set to introduce Paramount+ and a selection of its most popular shows on International and Domestic routes.¹

Beginning April 2025, passengers onboard JAL international routes will be able to enjoy a selection of Paramount+ hit shows inflight, with domestic routes to follow in May 2025. JAL is proud to be the first airline in Japan to bring this offering as Paramount+ to its passengers onboard, enriching the inflight experience.

Paramount+ is Paramount's global subscription streaming service that provides a mountain of premium entertainment for audiences of all ages, offering a rich lineup of hit original series, movies, and popular TV shows across all genres from world-renowned production brands and studios such as CBS.

Among the exciting titles coming to the skies are "Yellowstone" with Kevin Costner's Golden Globe Award-winning performance, as well as gritty and thrilling dramas like "Tulsa King" starring Sylvester Stallone. Families can also enjoy favorites like "Knuckles."

JAL is striving to exceed the expectations of its passengers, and is committed to providing greater satisfaction and enjoyment through its services, including an ever-evolving inflight entertainment experience.

<Service Overview>

Content: Selection of Paramount+ programs to be available onboard JAL's inflight entertainment system.
Schedule: International Flights: From April 2025
Domestic Flights: From May 2025
Applicable aircraft: All International and Domestic JAL Aircraft²

¹ Programming content may vary depending on the aircraft. For more details on entertainment options, please visit here.

² Available on JAL and J-AIR operated aircraft. Service offering is limited to only Inflight Wi-Fi on JTA-operated aircraft.