

JAL to Introduce Award Anytime tickets for Domestic flights that can be booked with miles even during busy Travel Periods

Sep 29, 2021

JAL, today announced that in response to customer requests for an easier way to use domestic award tickets so that they can be booked with miles even during busy periods, JAL will introduce a new service for JAL Group domestic award tickets, "Award Anytime Tickets", starting November 1, 2021.

The "Award Anytime Ticket" is a new service that allows you to book an award ticket as long as there are seats available on your desired flight by deducting a predetermined number of miles. During busy periods such as the year-end and New Year holidays, Golden Week, and summer vacation, when there are no seats available for Standard award tickets, you can use your miles to expand your opportunities to fly with award tickets.

JAL has been offering the "Random Destination Miles" service for domestic flights, which allows customers to redeem domestic award tickets for less than half the normal mileage, and the "JAL International Award Ticket PLUS" service for international flights, which allows customers to make reservations by deducting basic miles and additional miles that vary depending on the number of remaining seats. We will continue our efforts to make JAL Mileage Bank an even more easier to use for our customers.
