

Japan Airlines Increases Flight Options for Customers Traveling between Tokyo (Haneda) and New York (JFK)

~JAL to Codeshare on American Airlines' New HND – JFK Service~

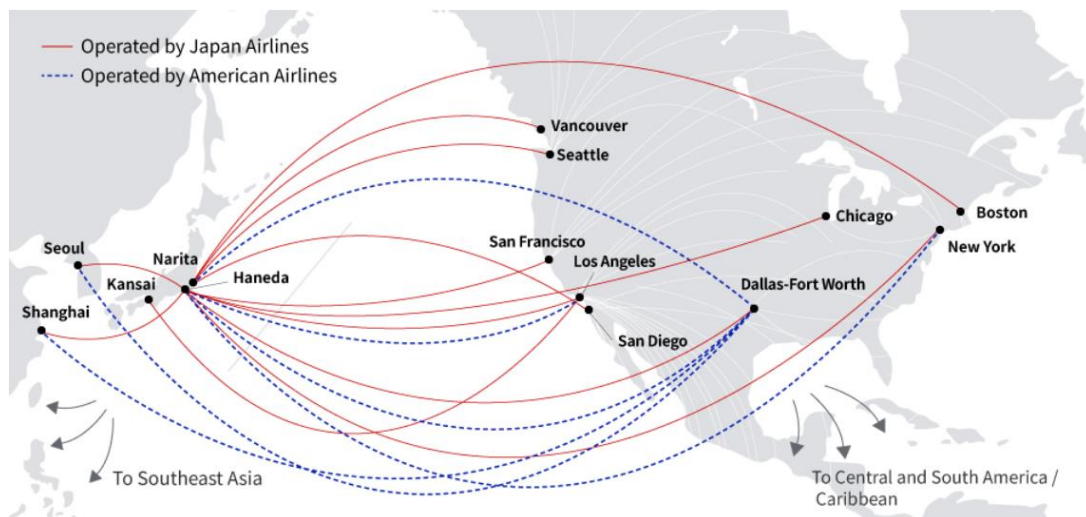

Japan Airlines' Pacific Joint Business partner (*), American Airlines is launching new nonstop service on the Tokyo Haneda (HND) - New York (JFK) route from June 28, 2024. Today, JAL announced that it will add its code to the new flights.

Customers will now have the option to choose from three daily flights between the two cities, including two daily nonstop flights operated by JAL. Being the only U.S. carrier to fly between New York and Tokyo, American Airlines' new service will also provide customers with enhanced connectivity to destinations in the United States, Central and South America via New York.

(*) A joint business is a form of partnership between multiple airlines, allowing them to jointly operate flight schedules and coordinate connecting times. By operating as a unified entity, it increases the options for flight schedules and improves convenience by reducing connecting times. Learn more about our Pacific Joint Business.

About Japan Airlines

Japan Airlines (JAL), Japan's first private aviation company, was established in 1951 and is a member of the oneworld® Alliance. The airline operates a fleet of 227 aircraft (as of March, 2024) and began renewing its international long-haul aircraft with the Airbus A350-1000 starting 2023 Winter Schedule. Together with other JAL Group and partner airlines, JAL offers an extensive domestic and international network that serves 376 airports across 64 countries/regions. The airline has received numerous accolades for its exceptional service, including being recognized as a certified 5-Star Airline by Skytrax and being awarded the prestigious "World Class" Airline title by APEX, the Airline Passenger Experience Association. JAL takes great pride in its on-time performance and is regarded as one of the most punctual airlines globally. The airline is dedicated to ensuring the highest standards of flight safety and overall service quality, striving to be the most preferred airline by customers worldwide. The JAL Group recognizes that action to address climate change is a particularly important issue for the sustainability of society, and in June 2020, the group announced its commitment to achieve net zero carbon emissions by 2050.
